

SCWCA Conference 2009: Writing and Teaching a Practice of Pleasure

Co-hosted by Southwestern University & Abilene Christian University

April 2-4, 2009: Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas

Keynote Speaker: T.R. Johnson of Tulane University, author A Rhetoric of Pleasure

Co-hosts Cole Bennett (Abilene Christian University) and Elisabeth Piedmont-Marton (Southwestern University) are delighted to welcome all of you to SCWCA 2009 Conference.

The keynote presentation, Tutoring Toward Pleasure: How and Why, will be delivered by T.R. Johnson at the luncheon on Friday in the ballrooms in the McCombs Center in the Southwestern University campus. Johnson has served as an associate professor of English and Director of the Writing Program at Tulane since 2004, having previously taught at the University of New Orleans and Boston University. He is the author of A Rhetoric of Pleasure: Prose Style and Today's Composition Classroom (Heinemann, 2003) as well as the edited collections, Refiguring Prose Style: Possibilities for Writing Pedagogy (with Tom Pace; Utah, 2005) and Teaching Composition: The Background Readings (Bedford St. Martin's, 2005). He has also taught at the University of Louisville, Bellarmine University, Boston University, and the University of New Orleans at Tulane. He teaches courses on writing and writing-pedagogy, as well as an undergraduate introduction to critical theory and a course on the literature of New Orleans.
